Plantogen® Balancing Skin Facial

Ideal as a balancing and purifying treatment

Oily skin produces excess sebum throughout the face, particularly through the T-zone, which can look shiny even after cleansing. Oily skin is common in teenagers, but it can occur at any age. The flow of sebum or oil increases during adolescence and starts decreasing with age. During pregnancy and menopause, hormonal imbalances can also upset the oil balance and increase the activity of sebaceous glands. It is important to avoid harsh products that strip the skin of oil, leaving the skin taut and dehydrated and encourage flakiness. They can cause a reaction known as reactive seborrhea, where the oil glands work overtime to compensate for the loss of natural oils. One hour facial $75.00

Plantogen® Signature Dry Skin Facial

Ideal as a refreshing and restorative treatment

An invaluable aid in the elimination and alleviation of dryness, puffiness, the diminishing of dark circles and management of skin problems associated with visible signs of fatigue, jet lag or the demands of busy lifestyles. Recommended for: Dry, sun damaged and mature skin. Dry skin has a tendency to peel and flake, an occasional tendency to redness, and to feel taut and tight. Dry skin may be lacking in elasticity and may look older and more wrinkled. It is a fact that as we age, oil production slows down and most skins become drier. One hour facial $75.00
